SHORT ANSWER AND OPTIONAL QUESTIONS

Your answer to the following questions will be evaluated along with the essay you wrote as part of the Common Application or Universal College Application. We encourage you to take advantage of this additional opportunity to let us know about your intellectual and personal interests. Please limit each answer as indicated.

28. The following questions are required for engineering and transfer applicants. Please limit your response to one to three paragraphs. You may use the additional page provided at the end of this form.
- (FOR ENGINEERING APPLICANTS ONLY) If you are applying to the Pratt School of Engineering, please discuss why you want to study engineering and why you would like to study at Duke.
 - (FOR TRANSFER APPLICANTS ONLY) Consider the books, essays, poems, or journal articles you have read over the last year or two, either for school or leisure. Please discuss the way in which one of them has changed your understanding of the world, other people, or yourself.
 - (FOR TRANSFER APPLICANTS ONLY) If you want to transfer to Trinity College of Arts & Sciences, please discuss why you consider Duke a good match for you. Is there something in particular at Duke that attracts you? If you want to transfer to the Pratt School of Engineering, please be sure to answer question 28a above.
29. The following questions are optional—and, yes, they truly are optional! If you choose to answer them, please use the additional page provided at the end of this form unless noted otherwise. If you choose not to answer them, your chance of admission will not be affected.
- (FOR ARTS & SCIENCES APPLICANTS ONLY) If you are applying to Trinity College of Arts & Sciences, please discuss why you consider Duke a good match for you. Is there something in particular at Duke that attracts you? Please limit your response to one or two paragraphs.
 - If you have participated in any significant research activity outside of school, please provide a brief description and limit your response to one or two paragraphs.
 - We seek to understand and appreciate you as an individual. If there is a parent, sibling, other relative, or friend who you think could help us do that, we would be happy to receive a one-page letter from one of them. (It must be mailed to our office by January 2, 2010.) This optional information will be considered in our understanding of you as a person, but will not be formally evaluated as part of your application.

If you have a disability and would like to receive consideration for reasonable accommodations, we encourage you to contact the Disability Management System-Student Access Office at (919) 684-5917, voice; (919) 684-5324, TTY; or e-mail, disabilities@as.duke.edu. Duke University is committed to equality of educational opportunities for qualified students with disabilities, but the level of services provided at post-secondary institutions can differ considerably from what many students receive in high school. For example, all students in Trinity College of Arts & Sciences must fulfill a foreign language requirement.

DUKE COMMUNITY STANDARD

Duke University is a community dedicated to scholarship, leadership, and service and to the principles of honesty, fairness, respect, and accountability. Citizens of this community commit to reflect upon and uphold these principles in all academic and non-academic endeavors, and to protect and promote a culture of integrity.

To uphold the Duke Community Standard:

- I will not lie, cheat, or steal in my academic endeavors;
- I will conduct myself honorably in all my endeavors; and
- I will act if the Standard is compromised.

CONDITIONS OF APPLICATION

In applying for admission to Duke University, you are consenting to the following conditions:

- That the information supplied by you on this application is true and correct to the best of your knowledge;
- That providing false information, including your citizenship or U.S. visa status, is grounds for termination of your application or revocation of an admissions offer or your enrollment status at any time;
- That you authorize the Admissions Office and appropriate faculty and staff of all educational institutions you have attended to discuss your candidacy;
- That the only valid notification of an admissions decision is the formal (printed) decision letter from the Dean of Undergraduate Admissions;
- That Duke University may discontinue your application for admission if you are accepted under a binding Early Decision program to another college or university;
- That Duke University may discontinue your application or withdraw your offer of admission at any time if you apply Early Decision to Duke and the terms of the Early Decision Agreement are not met; and
- That if any of the information in your application changes between now and your enrollment at Duke, you will notify the Admissions Office within 48 hours. Failing to notify the Admissions Office within 48 hours of any changes may result in the withdrawal of your application and/or the offer of admission at any time.

E A R L Y DECISION

Early Decision applicants, we need your first quarter grades. When you give the School Report Supplement to your college advisor or school registrar, also give him or her the First Quarter Grade Report form, which is available at www.admissions.duke.edu.
